In Person: End of Life Preparations

KEOLPREP End of Life Preparations Module

OVERVIEW

The End of Life Preparations Module was first introduced as part of the 2005 telephone interview. During the 2005 collection wave, survey questions about preparations the participant had made for the end of life were administered to a randomly selected 70% sub-sample, as well as to all study participants known to reside in the city of "Wiscville," Wisconsin or surrounding areas, whether they did so at that time or in preceding years. Participants were included in the so-called "Wiscville sample" if any of the following conditions were met: (1) if they lived in the Wiscville area at the time of the 1994 survey; (2) if they lived in the Wiscville area when they were tracked for the 2005 survey; and/or (3) if they lived in the Wiscville area at the time of the 2005 interview. Participants such as these were targeted to receive questions about their end of life preparations in 2005 because, during the 1990s, the Wiscville area had been the site of a large-scale intervention study that encouraged residents to make end of life preparations such as living wills.

For the 2010 collection wave, we've expanded the End of Life Preparations Module's coverage to include our entire sample of graduate and selected sibling participants. Its subject matter, however, remains generally unchanged from the 2005 edition. A survey item about where the participant hopes to spend the last few days or weeks of their life has been removed and items about which specific spouses/partners, siblings, and/or children have been notified of and/or delegated authority over executing the participant's end of life wishes have been added to the interviewing framework used in 2005. Beyond these changes, the module progresses much as it did during the 2005 collection wave. Participants are first asked about their end of life healthcare plans and preferences and who, if anyone, has knowledge of them. Then, the participant is asked about legal arrangements they have made for someone else to make decisions about their medical care in the event of incapacity, followed by questions regarding their utilization of a living will or advance directive. Subsequently, the participant is asked about arrangements they've made for the distribution of their property and assets after death. Here, emphasis is given to wills, revocable trusts, joint ownerships or beneficiary designations, and the designation of an executor for the participant's estate. For participants who were interviewed about end of life preparations during the 2005 collection wave, we - for each type of preparation - simply determine whether our existing information continues to hold true and whether any changes have been made. If a participant has modified their end of life arrangements since 2005, we follow-up by asking about their reasons for doing so. The module concludes with a series of questions about preferences for receiving life prolonging medical treatment in the face of debility, how strictly wishes for end of life medical care should be followed by others, and a newly introduced item about how much control the participant hopes to exercise over when and how they die.

For more information on the End of Life Preparations Module, see Appendix U - cor854. Note that beneficiaries of life insurance are addressed in the Assets Module, not here.

BRIEF VARIABLE DESCRIPTIONS

KELPSTAT-KELPREL:	Module-Level Status Variables.
KY003RE:	Has the Participant Made Any Preparations for the End of Life?
KY004RE:	Has the Participant Made Plans About Medical Care in Case of Future Serious Illness?
KY010RE-KY021RE:	Participant's Discussion of Health Care Plans and Preferences (With Anyone? Whom? How Well Does Person Understand?)
KY022RE-KY304RE:	Legal Arrangements for Someone to Make Decisions About Participant's Medical Care (Anyone? Who Has or Would Have That Authority? Changed from 2005 Interview?)
KY030RE-KY311RE:	Participant's Living Will or Advance Directive (Exists? Given to Anyone? Given to Whom?)
KY040RE-KY503REC:	Inheritance Plans if Participant or Spouse/Partner Were to Die (Who Would Get Assets? Wills, Trusts, Executor of Estate, Etc.)
KY061RE-KY601REC:	Preferences for Stopping/Continuing End of Life Medical Treatment - Both Participant's and Their Spouse's/Partner's
KY065RE, KY066SP:	How Strictly Does the Participant and Their Spouse/Partner Want Their Respective End of Life Wishes Followed?
KY080RE:	How Strongly Does the Participant Agree or Disagree That They Want to Control How and When They Die?

Note: For many cases a participant's spouse or other family member was present during the interview. This sometimes resulted in the participant relying on the other person for help in answering some or many of the questions. At the end of each module the interviewer indicated the amount of help the participant received and who provided that help. That assessment is covered by codes 1 through 5. Additionally, a code of 7 indicates that the entire interview was administered to a proxy while a code of 6 indicates that this particular module was answered by a proxy but other modules were answered by the participant.

Note: If the participant responded "yes" at KY004RE, KY010RE, KY022RE, OR KY030RE, this variable was assigned a value of "1," signifying "yes". If the participant said "no," "in process," or something other than "yes" for all four items (KY004RE, KY010RE, KY022RE, and KY030RE), this variable was assigned a value of "2," signifying "no".
Note: KY003REC is limited to preparations for failing health and incapacity at the end of life. It does not speak to preparations the participant may have made for distributing their assets in the event of death; these types of preparations are the subject of variables KY040RE-KY332RE (if the participant were to die, who would get their assets?), KY042RE (wills), KY043RE (revocable trusts), KY044RE (beneficiary designations), KY045SP-KY340RE (if the participant's spouse/partner were to die, how would their assets be distributed?), and KY046RE (estate executors).

Note: KY011REC has a maximum value of 3. Its value depends on whether the participant named people with whom they had discussed their preferences for end of life medical treatment at KY016RE, KY018RE, and/or KY020RE. If the participant responded "yes" at KY010RE, KY011REC will have a value of at least 1; its value will increase to 2 if someone was named at KY018RE and reach its maximum of 3 if someone else was named at KY020RE.

2	NO	78	116	194

Note: This variable is set to "1" for "yes" if a spouse or partner is mentioned at KY016RE, KY018RE, or KY020RE and we can also verify that the participant is CURRENTLY married to or partnered with the person named. If the participant named a spouse/partner along with other people when responding to KY016RE, KY018RE, and/or KY020RE, it was not possible for us to verify whether or not the person named was the current spouse/partner; for cases such as these, KY012REC has been assigned a value of "-4" and coded as not ascertained. This is also the case if we cannot - for some reason - verify that the participant is currently married to or partnered with a singularly named spouse/partner. Note that this represents a departure from how this variable was constructed during the 2005 collection wave (see CY012REC), when any mention of a spouse was sufficient for assigning a "yes" code. KY012REC is set to "no" if none of the people mentioned at KY016RE, KY018RE, and/or KY020RE are a spouse or partner. It is set to "-2", INAPPROPRIATE, if no spouse or partner is mentioned and any of the three constituent variables have values of "-1" (the participant did not know) or "-3" (the participant refused to answer), or if this question doesn’t apply because the participant didn’t discuss their health care plans with anyone (see KY010RE).

ky014rec: Has the Participant discussed their plans and preferences about the types of medical treatment they want or don’t want if they become seriously ill in the future with one or more of their children?

Note: This variable is set to "1" for "yes" if one or more children (including foster and step-children) are mentioned at KY016RE, KY018RE, or KY020RE. This is the case regardless of whether a child is named alone or in addition to other people at any of those three variables. This variable is set to "no" if none of the people mentioned at KY016RE, KY018RE, and KY020RE are children of the participant. If, however, none of the people mentioned are children and one or more of the three constituent variables ALSO has a value of "-1" (the participant did not know) or "-3" (the participant refused to answer), then KY014REC is set to "-2", INAPPROPRIATE. This will also be the case if the question doesn't apply because the participant didn't discuss their health care plans with anyone (see KY010RE). In rare cases, participants who - according to our records - are childless, may nonetheless have named a child; such cases have been retained.
Note: If any of the following codes were assigned at KY016RE, KY018RE, or KY020RE, then KY014REC will be set to "1": 2, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 46, 66, 70, 71, 72, 73, 168, 169, 171, or 172.

Note: If the participant reported discussing their health care plans and preferences with a single spouse/partner, child, or sibling at KY016RE, that person's roster ID number is the subject of KY300RE and can be used to link variables KY016RE and KY017RE with other data collected specifically about them. If, however, the participant reported discussing their health care plans and preferences with someone other than a spouse/partner, child, or sibling, KY300RE has been assigned a value of "-2" and coded as inappropriate. This is also the case if the participant, rather than specifying a single person at KY016RE, mentioned discussing their health care plans and preferences with multiple people - even if some of the people named were spouses/partners, children, or siblings.
Note: Just because the participant reported discussing their health care plans and preferences with a spouse or partner at KY016RE does not mean that KY300RE represents the roster ID number of the participant's current spouse or partner; former spouses and partners are assigned roster ID numbers too.
Note: 100s are Child Roster ID Numbers
200s are Spouse/Partner Roster ID Numbers
300s are Sibling Roster ID Numbers

Note: If the participant reported discussing their health care plans and preferences with a single spouse/partner, child, or sibling at KY018RE, that person’s roster ID number is the subject of KY301RE and can be used to link variables KY018RE and KY019RE with other data collected specifically about them. If, however, the participant reported discussing their health care plans and preferences with someone other than a spouse/partner, child, or sibling, KY301RE has been assigned a value of "-2" and coded as

Note: Slightly different questions about whether the participant has designated a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care (DPAHC) were asked depending on whether or not they were interviewed about end of life preparations during the 2005 round of data collection. Participants from whom we collected data on end of life preparations in 2005 were reminded of what they had told us then (did or did not have a DPAHC; who their DPAHC was, if applicable). If they DID NOT have a DPAHC in 2005, they were asked if they had designated one since then. If they DID have a DPAHC in 2005, they were asked whether they had changed the person so designated since then (at item y_wpb1z). Responses of "no" at y_wpb1z result in KY022RE being assigned a value of "1", signifying yes. Responses of "yes" at y_wpb1z can also result in KY022RE being assigned a value of "1", but only if the participant also provides valid data on the new person designated as their DPAHC (see KY025RE). If the participant did not know or refused to inform us about whether they had changed the person named as their DPAHC, those responses are reflected in KY022RE. There were a few cases in which participants indicated to the interviewer that they did not, and never did, have a DPAHC, despite 2004 data indicating they did. These cases were assigned a value of "2" on KY022RE, signifying no.
Note: Although the survey questions this variable was based on were programmed in the instrument to only allow for yes-or-no responses, participants volunteering that they were in the process of designating a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care (DPAHC) or making some similar legal arrangement were assigned values of "4," signifying "IN PROCESS OF MAKING THIS".

Note: This variable is set to "1" for "yes" if a spouse or partner is mentioned at KY025RE and we can also verify that the participant is CURRENTLY married to or partnered with the person named. If the participant named a spouse/partner along with other people when responding to KY025RE, it was not possible for us to verify whether or not the person named was the current spouse/partner; for cases such as these, KY023REC has been assigned a value of "-4" and coded as not ascertained. This is also the case if we cannot - for some reason - verify that the participant is currently married to or partnered with a singularly named spouse/partner. Note that this represents a departure from how this variable was constructed during the 2005 collection wave (see CY023REC), when any mention of a spouse was sufficient for assigning a "yes" code. KY023REC is set to "no" if none of the people mentioned at KY025RE are a spouse or partner. It is set to "-2", INAPPROPRIATE, if KY025RE has a value of "-1" (the participant did not know) or "-3" (the participant refused to answer), or if it doesn't apply because the participant has not made any legal arrangements for someone to make decisions about their medical care if they become unable to do so (see KY022RE).

Note: This variable is set to "1" for "yes" if one or more children (including foster and step-children) are mentioned at KY025RE. This is the case regardless of whether a child is named alone or in addition to other people. The variable is set to "no" if none of the people mentioned at KY025RE are children of the participant. It is set to "-2", INAPPROPRIATE, if KY025RE has a value of "-1" (the participant did not know) or "-3" (the participant refused to answer), or if it doesn't apply because the participant has not made any legal arrangements for someone to make decisions about their medical care if they become unable to do so (see KY022RE). In rare cases, participants who - according to our records - are childless, may nonetheless have named a child; such cases have been retained.

Note: For certain participants, this variable is based on information collected during the 2005 round of data collection. This is the case for participants who were interviewed about end of life preparations in 2005, subsequently provided information on the person designated as their Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care (DPAHC), and - when reminded of this in 2010 - reported not changing the person so designated since then (at y_wpb1z). For such participants, KY025RE should be equal to CY025RE from the 2005 round of data collection. If a participant interviewed about end of life preparations in 2005 reported a new person whom they had designated as their DPAHC since then (at y_wpb1aa1), KY025RE reflects as much. Participants who did not know or refused to indicate whether or not they had changed the person named as their DPAHC since being interviewed in 2005 have been assigned values of "-2" on KY025RE, signifying inappropriate. Ultimately, this variable is only applicable if KY022RE has a value of "1".

Note: If the participant reported that a single spouse/partner, child, or sibling has the legal authority to make decisions about their medical care if they become unable to do so at KY025RE, that person's roster ID number is the subject of KY303RE and can be used to link variable KY025RE with other data collected specifically about them. If, however, the participant reported that someone other than a spouse/partner, child, or sibling has said legal authority, KY303RE has been assigned a value of "-2" and coded as inappropriate. This is also the case if the participant, rather than specifying a single person at KY025RE, mentioned that multiple people have the authority to make medical decisions for them if they become unable to do so - even if some of the people named were spouses/partners, children, or siblings.

Note: Just because the participant named a spouse or partner at KY025RE does not mean that KY303RE represents the roster ID number of the participant's current spouse or partner; former spouses and partners are assigned roster ID numbers too.
Note: In some cases, KY025RE reflects data originally collected during the 2005 round of data collection. In such instances, even if a single spouse/partner, child, or sibling was named, it was impossible to verify their roster ID number, resulting in a code of "not ascertained" at KY303RE.
Note: 100s are Child Roster ID Numbers
200s are Spouse/Partner Roster ID Numbers
300s are Sibling Roster ID Numbers

If the participant named a spouse/partner along with other people when responding to any/all of the previously listed variables, it was not possible for us to verify whether or not the person named was the current spouse/partner; for cases such as these, KY032REC has been assigned a value of "-4" and coded as not ascertained. This is also the case if we cannot - for some reason - verify that the participant is currently married to or partnered with a singularly named spouse/partner. Note that this represents a departure from how this variable was constructed during the 2005 collection wave (see CY032REC), when any mention of a spouse was sufficient for assigning a "yes" code. KY032REC is set to "no" if none of the people mentioned at KY034RE-KYY43RE are a spouse or partner. It is set to "-2", INAPPROPRIATE, if no spouse or partner is mentioned and any of the ten constituent variables have a value of "-1" (the participant did not know) or "-3" (the participant refused to answer), or if the questions don't apply because the participant does not have a living will or advance directive (see KY030RE).

Note: This variable is set to "1" for "yes" if one or more children (including foster and step-children) are mentioned at KY034RE, KY035RE, KY036RE, KY037RE, KY038RE, KYY39RE, KYY40RE, KYY41RE, KYY42RE, or KYY43RE. This is the case regardless of whether a child is named alone or in addition to other people at any of those ten variables. This variable is set to "no" if none of the people mentioned at the previously mentioned variables are children of the participant. If, however, none of the people mentioned are children and one or more of the ten constituent variables ALSO has a value of "-1" (the participant did not know) or "-3" (the participant refused to answer), then KY033REC is set to "-2", INAPPROPRIATE. This will also be the case if the questions don't apply because the participant does not have a living will or advance directive (see KY030RE). In rare cases, participants who - according to our records - are childless, may nonetheless have named a child; such cases have been retained.

Note: If any of the following codes were assigned at KY034RE, KY035RE, KY036RE, KY037RE, KY038RE, KYY39RE, KYY40RE, KYY41RE, KYY42RE, or KYY43RE, then KY033REC will be set to "1": 2, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 46, 66, 70, 71, 72, 73, 168, 169, 171, or 172.

Note: If the participant reported that their assets would go to either siblings or some - but not all - of their children at KY040RE, they were asked to indicate which specific siblings or children would be recipients. Thus, KY317RE provides the roster ID number of the third sibling or child named as a recipient by the participant (if applicable) and can be used to look up other data collected specifically about that person. If, to the contrary, the participant reported that some combination of siblings and children would receive their assets, or that someone other than a sibling or child would get (a portion of) them, then KY317RE has been assigned a value of "-2" and coded as inappropriate.

Thus, KY331RE provides the roster ID number of the seventh sibling or child named as a recipient by the participant (if applicable) and can be used to look up other data collected specifically about that person. If, to the contrary, the participant reported that some combination of siblings and children would receive their assets, or that someone other than a sibling or child would get (a portion of) them, then KY331RE has been assigned a value of "-2" and coded as inappropriate. This is also the case if data was not solicited from participants at KY041RE at all.
Note: 100s are Child Roster ID Numbers
200s are Spouse/Partner Roster ID Numbers
300s are Sibling Roster ID Numbers

Note: If multiple estate executors were named, the interviewer was instructed to ask who is most important.
Note: For certain participants, this variable is based on information collected during the 2005 round of data collection. This is the case for participants who were interviewed about end of life preparations in 2005, subsequently provided information on the person designated as their estate executor, and - when reminded of this in 2010 - reported not changing the person so designated since then (at y_wpe9a). For such participants, KY046RE should be equal to CY046RE from the 2005 round of data collection. If a participant interviewed about end of life preparations in 2005 reported a new person whom they had designated as their estate executor since then (at y_wpe9aa), KY046RE reflects as much. Participants who did not know or refused to indicate whether or not they had changed the person named as their estate executor since being interviewed in 2005 have been assigned values of "-2" on KY046RE, signifying inappropriate.

Note: If a child or sibling has been designated the executor of the participant's estate (see KY046RE), that person's roster ID number is the subject of KY341RE and can be used to link variable KY046RE with other data collected specifically about them. If, however, someone other than a child or sibling has been designated estate executor, KY341RE has been assigned a value of "-2" and coded as inappropriate. This is also the case if the participant, rather than specifying a single person at KY046RE, mentioned that multiple people have been designated executors of their estate - even if some of the people named were children or siblings.
Note: In some cases, KY046RE reflects data originally collected during the 2005 round of data collection. In such instances, even if a single child or sibling was named, it was impossible to verify their roster ID number, resulting in a code of "not ascertained" at KY341RE.

Note: This variable is only applicable to participants who reported having changed the person designated as their estate executor from who it was when they were interviewed during the 2005 round of data collection. Participants who were not interviewed in 2005, did not belong to the 2005 End of Life Preparations sample, or who have not modified the person named as their estate executor since being interviewed in 2005 have been assigned values of "-2" on KY503REC and coded as inappropriate.

Note: 101 participants were interviewed before an error in the CAPI instrument’s programming was corrected. For these participants, the survey question that KY063SP is based on was asked twice in a row (at both y_wpi1a and y_wpi2a), while the survey question for KY064SP was not asked at all. After listening to audio files from all of the interviews affected by the error, manual recoding was performed such that KY063SP is only based on the participant’s first answer to the question, "Suppose your spouse/partner had a serious illness today with very low chances of survival. What if he/she were mentally intact, but in severe and constant physical pain? Would he/she want to continue all medical treatments or stop all life-prolonging treatments?" This protocol was followed even if a participant refused or did not know the first time they were asked the survey question but provided a valid answer the second time. To correct the error in the CAPI instrument, y_wpi1a was replaced by y_wpi1av2.

For these participants, the survey question that KY063SP is based on was asked twice in a row (at both y_wpi1a and y_wpi2a), while the survey question for KY064SP was not asked at all. Thus, for most of these participants, KY064SP has been assigned a value of "-2," signifying "inappropriate". In a handful of cases, however, the repetition of the survey question for KY063SP was noticed (by either the interviewer or participant) and valid data for KY064SP was collected. Such valid data is only presented here if, when listening to the audio file from an affected interview, we could confirm that the survey question for KY064SP was explicitly answered by the participant. To correct the error in the CAPI instrument, y_wpi1a was replaced by y_wpi1av2.
