Monday, October 5th at 5:00 PM-7:00 PM
Grainger Hall 5120

Topic:
Should China sustain export-oriented economy or shift the focus to promoting the domestic demand?

Speakers:

Edward Friedman
Professor Edward Friedman is a professor in the department of Political Science. He mainly focuses on the issues about China, Globalization and Political Economy.
He was an Advisor to certain committees of the U.S. Congress, and was part of President Clinton's think-tank on China's issue; he's also published numerous books about China (including a 2008 one on China & India. In 1984 he was advisor to a United Nations Development Program project in China on integrated rural development.

Jeremy Suri
Professor Jeremy Suri is a professor in the department of History. His focuses are International History, Politics, Social Movements and Globalization.
He is the author of three books on contemporary politics and foreign policy. His research and teaching have received numerous prizes. In 2007 Smithsonian Magazine named Professor Suri one of America's "Top Young Innovators" in the Arts and Sciences.

---

Upcoming event

Forum #12

“Tire tax”

DATE: October 13th Tuesday
LOCATION: TITU

In our first forum we will invite Econ Pro. Maria Muniagurria to join us and share her opinion on "Tire Tax", also it will be a great opportunity for you to express your idea, and communicate with other people who are also interested in this issue.

---

Contact Information

Visit our Website: http://cef.rso.wisc.edu/
Contact us: cef.madison@gmail.com

CEF is a sub vision of CSSA