

CARL UnCover

UnCover is a database of current article information taken from well over 18,000 multidisciplinary journals. UnCover contains brief descriptive information for over 8,800,000 articles which have appeared since Fall 1988. UnCover offers you the opportunity to order fax copies of the articles from this database. UnCover is easy to use, with keyword access to article titles and summaries.

UNCOVER REVEAL

UnCover Reveal is an automated alerting service that delivers the table of contents of your favorite periodicals directly to your e-mail box. The Reveal service also allows users to create search strategies for their favorite topics. These search strategies are then run against the entire UnCover database and weekly alerts on the latest articles published on the specified topics are also delivered to the user's e-mail address. This service is free to UW-System faculty, staff and students.

For more information see <http://www.library.wisc.edu/help/quickguide/unreveal.htm>, <http://uncweb.carl.org/reveal/index.html>, or ask library staff.

OBTAINING ARTICLES

Articles may be ordered at your own expense through CARL. Fees include copyright payment and labor costs. Most of the journals are available on the UW-Madison campus. Search MadCat for locations or ask a library staff member. The Demography Library does free document delivery for CDE faculty and staff.
