

Demographic Lists

Demographic-List

The Demographic-List international email forum [Est. October 1992] is a mailing list for the discussion of demography and demographic techniques supported by the Demography Program at the Australian National University.

To subscribe to Demographic-List

Send email to:

majordomo@coombs.anu.edu.au

Leave subject line blank

In the body of the message type:

Example:

(Your name is optional)

subscribe demographic-list your name

subscribe demographic-list Thomas Malthus

Further Information:

<http://demography.anu.edu.au/demographic-list.html>

H-DEMOG

H-DEMOG is an international scholarly online discussion list on demographic history. H-Demog is affiliated with H-Net, an independent, international consortium of scholars sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities and Michigan State University where it is located. H-Demog is open to scholars, advanced students, teachers, and professionals who desire participation in academic discussions of historical demography, including family history, census analysis, GIS, etc. H-Demog encourages discussions of research interests, teaching methods, and historiography. H-Demog is especially interested in the teaching of history to graduate and undergraduate students in diverse settings. In addition, H-Demog publishes course materials, announcements of conferences and fellowships, book reviews, and the H-Net job guide. H-Demog is also non-partisan and will not publish calls for political action. H-Demog maintains close relations with the Social Science History Association and the International Commission Historical Demography. Leadership in both these associations is represented on the Editorial board of H-Demog.

To subscribe to H-Demog

Send email to: listserv@msu.edu

Leave subject line blank

In the body of the message type: sub h-demog your name, your institution
Example: sub h-demog Thomas Malthus, UW-Madison

Archives and further information: <http://h-net2.msu.edu/~demog/>

Center for Demography and Ecology Library
University of Wisconsin-Madison
4471 Social Science Building
1180 Observatory Drive
Madison, WI 53706
<http://www.ssc.wisc.edu/cde/library/>