H-Ethnic

H-ETHNIC is an international electronic discussion group whose files server has been located at Michigan State University to provide a forum for academic historians to discuss ethnic history; immigration and emigration studies. The primary purpose of H-ETHNIC is to enable historians more easily to discuss research interests, teaching methods and the state of historiography. H-ETHNIC is especially interested in methods of teaching history to graduate and undergraduate students in diverse settings. H-ETHNIC features dialogues in the discipline, publishes syllabi, outlines, handouts, bibliographies, tables of contents of journals, guides to term papers, listings of new sources, library catalogs and archives, and reports on new software, datasets and CD-ROMS. Subscribers write in with questions, comments and reports. H-ETHNIC posts announcements of conferences, fellowships and jobs. It carries information about new books and commissions book reviews.
