Thursday August 1st
8417 William H. Sewell Social Science Building
(This room is on the 8th floor on the lake side of the building)

9:15 – 10:30 Pam Herd
Overview of the WLS

10:30 -- 10:45 Break

10:45 – 11:30 Carol Roan
Using WLS Data

11:30 – 1:15 Lunch Break
(Lunch will be on own – recommend you visit food carts, union or State Street restaurants)

1:30 - 3:30* Working Time and consultations.
Grant recipients and other invited guests will use this time to start or continue work on their projects. WLS staff will be readily available to help and answer questions.

*or as needed
Friday August 2nd
8417 William H. Sewell Social Science Building
(This room is on the 8th floor on the Lake side of the building)

9:00 – 9:45  Marsha Mailick
"Genetics and the WLS: Population-based Studies of the Prevalence of the Premutation of Fragile X Syndrome"

9:45 – 10:30  Andrew London
"Military Service and Smoking across the Life Course: Evidence from the WLS"

10:30 – 10:45  Break

Results from 2012 Pilot Grant Winners

10:45 – 11:30  Lewina Lee
“Does timing matter? Differential Effects of Childhood Adversities & Stressful Life Events on Cognitive Trajectories in the Wisconsin Longitudinal Study”

11:30-12:15  Yusuke Kuroki
“Identifying Diverse Pathways to Cognitive Decline in Later Life Using Genetic and Environmental Factors”

Proposal presentations by winning 2013 Pilot Grant Winners

12:15 – 12:30  Dario Monzani
“Dispositional Optimism in Elderly People: Determinants and Potentials”

Celeste Campos-Castillo
“Contextualizing the Relative Importance of Trust in a Physician’s Confidentiality”