

---

Sociology 995: Demography of Health and Aging Brown Bag Series
Schedule for Fall 2000

September 13

Donna Jahnke, Assistant Dean, College of Letters and Sciences
Human Subjects: For Social Scientists

September 20

John Wilmoth, UC-Berkeley, Dept. of Demography
The Changing Limits of the Human Life Span

October 4

Maureen Smith, Preventive Medicine
Organizational structure and in-hospital complications for stroke patients

October 11

Roberta Riportella-Mueller, Human Ecology
Helping Medicare beneficiaries make choices: Notes from the field

October 25

Nate Rickles, Pharmacy
Using medication claims in social epidemiologic investigations: Methodological issues and examples

November 1

Teresa Thompson-Colon, Sociology
Social Networks and the Health of Mexican Mothers and Children

November 8

Lori Bell, Sociology
The Future's so Bright: Perceptions of Aging and the Expectation of Additional Education in Adulthood

November 15

Alair MacLean, Sociology
Occupational Age Stratification in the United States

November 29

Steven Haas, Sociology
Socioeconomic Differences in Health in Peru

December 6

Jennifer Sheridan, Sociology
The Wisconsin Model of Status Attainment as a Life Course Process: Evaluating the Long-Term Effects of Social Psychology Variables