

Sociology 995: Demography of Health and Aging Brown Bag Series
Schedule for Fall 2008

Wednesday, September 3

No meeting scheduled for this week.

Wednesday, September 10

Pam Herd, University of Wisconsin, LaFollette School of Public Affairs

The Link between Education and Health Outcomes in Late Life among High School Graduates: The Relative Importance of Cognitive and Non-Cognitive Aspects of Human Capital

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, September 17

Hongyun Han, University of Wisconsin, Sociology

Does Mother's Cultural Belief Contribute to Childhood Obesity?

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, September 24

Erica Siegl, University of Wisconsin, Sociology

Phil Brenner, University of Wisconsin, Sociology

Exploring the Relationship between Social Factors and Health

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, October 1

Daphne Kuo, University of Wisconsin, School of Medicine and Public Health

Smoking and Cognitive Ability for Non-dementia Older Adults

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, October 8

Mary McEniry, University of Wisconsin, Center for Demography and Ecology

The Health Transition and Older Adult Health in the Developing World

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, October 15

Sara Moorman, University of Wisconsin, Sociology

The Multiple Faces of Autonomy in Older Adults' Medical Decision-Making

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, October 22

Yan Yu, University of Wisconsin, Sociology

Re-Examining the Age Effect on the Weight-Mortality Relationship: Age of Death, Age of Weight and Cohort Effect

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, October 29 Cancelled

Dick Campbell, University of Illinois at Chicago, Sociology

Untangling the Effect of Race and SES on Stage of Breast Cancer Diagnosis

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, November 5

Erica Siegl, University of Wisconsin, Sociology

Social Participation and Health: Links from Adolescence to Early Old Age

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, November 12

CDHA seminar is cancelled this week.

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, November 19

James Raymo, University of Wisconsin, Sociology

Mid-life Work Experiences and First Retirement

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, November 26

Happy Thanksgiving! No meeting scheduled for this week.

Wednesday, December 3

Jessica Schumacher, University of Wisconsin, Population Health Sciences

Cancer and Stress: The Impact of a Cancer Diagnosis on Health Care Utilization and Health Outcomes

2:30-4:00 PM, 6101 William H. Sewell Social Science Building

Wednesday, December 10 Cancelled due to severe winter weather condition

Rebeca Wong, Director, World Health Organization/Pan American Health Organization Collaborating Center on Aging and Health

Professor, University of Texas Medical Branch, Department of Preventive Medicine and Community Health

Tracking Healthy Lifestyle Transitions among Adults: A Focus on Mexico 2:30-4:00 PM, 8411 William H. Sewell Social Science Building