Question: What's the best class you've ever taken?

Marisa Jacobson, 26, UW-Madison law student: "I'd say Trusts
and Estates
with Professor Howard
Erlanger,
because I'm currently enrolled in it and maybe my professor will read this."

Alyn Turner, 23, UW-Madison grad student: "Charles Halaby's
Sociology 362, which is Stats for Sociologists.
He does a really good job of engaging students and balancing great teaching with funny stories. You learn a lot in his class and it's also entertaining."

Dana Garbarski, 23, UW-Madison
grad student: "I'd also say Halaby's
Sociology
362. His lectures were really clear and concise — and he's hilarious. He also goes a good job showing how the class applies to real world situations."
