"Economy and Society: Max Weber in 2000"
University of Wisconsin-Madison
September 21 - 24, 2000

SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE
(revised 8/30/00)

Friday, September 22
Location: Clark Smith Hall, 18th Floor, Van Hise Hall, 1220 Linden Drive

8:15 a.m. Registration and Coffee

8:45 a.m. WELCOME
David M. Trubek, Dean of International Studies, UW-Madison
Michael Engelhard, Consul General of the Federal Republic of Germany

9:00 - 12:45 a.m. Session 1: HISTORICAL CONTEXT AND TEXT
Moderator: Klaus L. Berghahn (UW-Madison)

Part One:
Guenther Roth (Columbia University): “Max Weber’s Anglo-German Family History”
Lawrence Scaff (Wayne State University): “From the Historical School to Social Economics: Contextualizing Economy and Society”
Discussant: Rudy J. Koshar (UW-Madison)
Discussion and Questions

11:00 a.m. Break

11:15 a.m. Part Two:
Discussant: Harvey S. Goldman (University of California at San Diego)
Discussion and Questions

12:45 p.m. Lunch Break

2:00 - 4:00 p.m. Session 2: CONCEPTUAL FOUNDATIONS
Moderator: Charles Camic (UW-Madison)
Donald N. Levine (University of Chicago): “The Continuing Challenge of Weber’s Theory of Rational Action”
Mustafa Emirbayer (UW-Madison): "Beyond Weberian Action Theory"
Discussion and Questions

4:30 - 6:00 p.m.  Reception
336 Ingraham Hall, 1155 Observatory Drive

Saturday, September 23
Location: The Virginia F. Harrison Parlor, Lathrop Hall, 1050 University Avenue

7:45 a.m.  Coffee

8:00 - 10:15 a.m.  Session 3: ECONOMIC SOCIOLOGY
Moderator: Philip S. Gorski (UW-Madison)
Erik O. Wright (UW-Madison): “The Shadow of Exploitation in Weber's Class Analysis”
Discussant: Susanne Hoeber Rudolph (University of Chicago)
Discussion and Questions

10:15 a.m.  Break

10:30 a.m.-12:45 p.m. Session 4: THE SOCIOLOGY OF LAW
Moderator: David M. Trubek (UW-Madison)
Christian Joerges (European University Institute-Florence): “Rationalization of Law and Bureaucratic Rationality in the EU: Legitimacy Problems of European Governance in the Light of Weberian Concepts”
Discussant: David M. Trubek
Discussion and Questions

12:45 p.m.  Lunch Break
1:45 - 4:15 p.m.
Session 5: THE SOCIOLOGY OF DOMINATION
Moderator: David M. Trubek

Regina Titunik (University of Hawaii): "Democracy, Domination and Legitimacy in Max Weber's Political Thought"
Julia Adams (University of Michigan): “The Rule of the Father: Patriarchy and Patrimonialism”

Discussion and Questions

4:15 p.m.
Break

4:30 - 6:45 p.m.
Session 6: THE CITY
Moderator: Gay Seidman (UW-Madison)

Fred Block (University of California at Davis): “Weber and Polanyi”
Boaventura de Sousa Santos (UW-Madison & Coimbra University, Portugal): “Who Needs Cosmopolitanism?”
Saskia Sassen (University of Chicago): “Citizenship and governance: Comparing Weber's cities and towns with today's global cities”

Discussant: Gay Seidman

Discussion and Questions

---

Sunday, September 24
Location: The Virginia F. Harrison Parlor, Lathrop Hall, 1050 University Avenue

8:45 a.m.
Coffee

9:00 - 11:00 a.m.
Session 7: THE SOCIOLOGY OF RELIGION
Moderator: Philip S. Gorski

Hans G. Kippenberg (University of Erfurt): "Weber’s Systematics of Religion"
Hans Joas (Free University of Berlin): “The Charisma of Human Rights”

Discussion and Questions

11:00 a.m.
Closing