V. Work and Family

1. Here are two ladders. There are ten stairs in total from the bottom to the top.
a. Think of this ladder as representing where people stand in America.

At the top of the ladder are the people who are the best off-those who have the most money, the most education and the most respected jobs.

At the bottom are the people who are the worst off - who have the least money, least education and the least respected jobs or no jobs.

The higher up you are on this ladder, the closer you are to the people at the very top; the lower you are, the closer you are to the people at the very bottom.

If you consider your current situation and compare it with all other people in America, where would you place yourself on this ladder?

Please circle the number that applies to you in America.

b. Now think of this ladder as representing where people stand in their communities, that is, where they live and the surrounding area.

At the top of the ladder are the people who have the highest standing in their community.

At the bottom are the people who have the lowest standing in their community.

The higher up you are on this ladder, the closer you are to the people at the very top; the lower you are, the closer you are to the people at the very bottom.

If you consider your current situation and compare it with all other people in your community, where would you place yourself on this ladder?

Please circle the number that applies to you in your community.

IX. How You Feel During a Typical Week

In this section, we are interested in learning about the types of feelings you experience during a typical week in your daily life. Some of the questions may seem repetitive, especially since you answered questions about your feelings over the past week in the previous section. However, for this section, please try to keep in mind that we're now interested in learning about how you feel during a typical week.

Please spend a minute or two reviewing the past 7 days in your mind, including weekend days.

1. Was the week that you have in mind a typical week for you? $\quad \square$ Yes $\quad \square$ No

Important: If it was not a typical week, please spend a minute or two thinking of a more typical one and then answer the questions that follow.

| Now please indicate how much you experienced each of the following feelings during this typical week. |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Circle one number for each question. | Not at all | A little | Quite a lot | A great deal |
| a. Angry/irritated | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 |
| b. Calm/serene | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 |
| c. Caring | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 |

XIII. Social and Civic Participation

We find that sometimes people have trouble remembering whether or not they voted in a specific election. And sometimes people think about voting, but then do not.

The next question asks whether or not you voted in the general election on Tuesday, November 5, 2002. Before you answer the question, try to remember who was on the ballot, how you got to the polls if you did vote -- details that would help you know for sure if you voted in the November 5, 2002 general election.

1. Now that you have thought about it, which of these statements best describes you:

I did not vote in the election in November 2002.
$\square$ I thought about voting in November 2002, but did not.
