

GUIDELINES FOR PAPER PARAGRAPH

For class on Wednesday, February 1, please bring a written title and brief description of the topic for your research paper. In the brief description, state:

- the variable or phenomenon to be explained or interpreted or predicted;
- some possible explanatory variables or factors;
- how you plan to go about finding data sources.

The topic and the brief description are understood to be tentative, though more focused than your initial description.