

Shiv Saini
Teaching Summary

Semester	Course	Course Title	Saini's Evaluation Score*	Average Evaluation Score*
Spring 2007	Econ 310	Statistics: Measurement in Economics	4.71	4.02
Fall 2006	Econ 450	Wages and Labor Economics	4.26	4.0
Spring 2004	Econ 310	Statistics: Measurement in Economics	4.18	3.86
Fall 2003	Econ 101	Principles of Microeconomics	2.92	3.79

*Evaluation Scores are generated from the student response to the following question: We know how the professor conducts the course often influences what a TA is able to do in a course. Given the professor's role and the structure of this course, how would you evaluate your TA's performance. (5=excellent, 4=good, 3=average, 2=fair, and 1=poor).

Teaching Award: Anna Morris Ely Teaching Award for Spring 2007. This award is given to the instructors with outstanding teaching contribution in the Economics Department over the years.