

KATIE ZAMAN

181 Lakewood Gardens Lane, Madison, WI, 53704 | 920-295-2071 | zaman@wisc.edu

EDUCATION

University of Wisconsin, Madison

Ph.D. in Sociology

Dissertation: Women's Empowerment in the Slums of Dhaka, Bangladesh

Areas of interest: gender, international development, globalization, political economy

Expected 2017

University of Wisconsin, Madison

M.S. in Sociology

Thesis: Women, Work, and Domestic Violence in Dhaka, Bangladesh

2010

Minnesota State University, Mankato

M.S. in Health Science

Areas of Concentration: Community Health, International Development

Thesis: The Importance of Culturally Appropriate Visual Aids in Health Education

2004

Minnesota State University, Mankato

B.F.A. in Graphic Design and Painting

Magna Cum Laude

1998

AWARDS

Honored Instructor Award, University Housing, UW-Madison

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship, Center for Southeast Asian Studies - Indonesian

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship, Center for South Asian Studies - Bengali

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship, Center for Southeast Asian Studies - Indonesian

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship, Center for South Asian Studies - Indonesian

Daniel Crowe Travel Award, Department of Community and Environmental Sociology

Honorable Mention, National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship Program

Fulbright Fellowship, US Department of State, Institute for International Education - Bangladesh

Fall 2015

September 2011 – June 2012

June 2011 – August 2011

June 2010 – August 2010

September 2009 – June 2009

August 2009

May 2008

September 2004 – June 2005

TEACHING

University of Wisconsin, Madison

Lecturer – Sociology of Gender

Developed course syllabus, lectures, quizzes, assignments, and final exam. Wrote and presented weekly lectures, held office hours, and completed all grade reporting for 101 (mostly freshmen) students.

Fall 2015, Spring 2016

Teaching Fellow – Undergraduate Research Supervision

Supervised three different undergraduate sociology majors as they helped me with my research.

Taught them how to use SPSS and Dedoose for coding and analysis of quantitative and qualitative data.

Helped them create annotated bibliography of resources on specific topics.

Summer 2014 – Spring 2016

Lecturer – Classical Marxism

Developed syllabus, reading guides, and discussion questions. Weekly lecture and discussion for 17 undergraduate students.

Fall 2013

Instructor – Academic Excellence Seminar, Posse

Developed syllabus and activities for weekly 2-hour seminar with 10 posse students. Seminar focuses on developing students' capacity to excel in school, including time management, professionalism, study skills, and discussions about how to cope with race, class, and gender discrimination on campus.

Fall 2012 – Spring 2014

Teaching Assistant – Sociology of Marriage and the Family

Taught 5 discussion sections with approximately 20 students each. Responsible for developing content, facilitating discussion, and evaluating student participation. Proctored and graded exams and papers, and tracked student grades. During my second semester teaching this course, I acted as a lead TA for the supervising professor.

Fall 2011 – Spring 2012

In addition to teaching, I have been a grader/reader for the following courses:

- Sociology 475: Classical Sociological Theory (Summer 2013, Spring 2014, Fall 2014)
- Sociology 138: Sociology of Gender (Spring 2014)
- Sociology 220: Sociology of Ethnic Social Movements in the US (Spring 2013-present)
- Sociology 623: Gender, Society, and Politics (Spring 2014)

CONSULTING

Astraea Lesbian Foundation for Justice

Researcher – Landscape Analysis of LGBTQI Rights and Organizations in India

July – August 2013

Conducted multi-method research, including desk review of available research, development agency reports, and popular publications, and media. Conducted interviews of activists in India via Skype. Wrote a high-quality, evidence-based report in accessible, clear language for use by organizations and agencies concerned with LGBTQI rights in India.

BoardSource

Statistical Consultant

September 2012 – March 2013

Performed basic statistical analysis on a project evaluating local executive boards of a national non-profit organization. Assisted with data cleaning and coding. Trained employee on the use of SPSS statistical analysis software.

United Nations Trust Fund to End Violence Against Women

Researcher – Annual Report 2012, Asia Pacific Grantees

July 2012

Conducted in-depth analyses of 6-month reports from grantees in the Asia Pacific region and developed summary synthesis of each project for UNTF annual report, including tracking of key indicators - types of violence, beneficiaries, and strategies, with comparative review across projects and a summary of lessons learned.

Federal Judicial Center, Federal Bankruptcy Courtroom Use Study

Independent Researcher

September – December 2009

As an independent observer for a Congressional project on courtroom use, I recorded observations of courtroom usage across a sample of federal bankruptcy courts and conducted preliminary data coding.

Healthy Communities Healthy Youth Marquette County

Evaluation Consultant

September 2008 – March 2009

Assisted county prevention coordinator with data compilation and synthesis for annual reports, renewal applications, and coalition review. Entered data and written analyses into an online reporting database (COMET: Coalition Online Management and Evaluation Tool), wrote drafts of renewal application and compiled required documentation for annual renewal process. Developed methodologies for future data collection.

SERVICE

University of Wisconsin, Madison, Department of Information Technology (DoIT)

Project Assistant – Advanced Computing Infrastructure

August 2013 – present

Supported program events and workshops by arranging room reservations, catering services, and access for guests to the Wisconsin Institutes for Discovery. Managed university purchasing card and other financial paperwork. Compiled and sent biweekly ACI Updates newsletter, and managed website content using Wordpress.

American Federation of Teachers (AFT)

Organizer – Teaching Assistants' Association (TAA)

August 2014 – November 2014

Developed, organized, and spearheaded implementation of an orientation week recruitment program that involved solicitation, training, and coordination of over 40 volunteers; Oversaw outreach to campus departments and scheduling of TAA presentations in nearly 100 orientation events across campus; Developed print and web media for use as branding and data collection tools; Coordinated charting of four departments. Created spreadsheet documents for tracking data.

University of Wisconsin, Madison, Division of Diversity, Equity, and Educational Achievement

Mentor – Chicago 11, Posse Program

August 2012 – June 2014

As a mentor to 10 students from Chicago Public Schools, I developed relationships with each student in order to support them as they navigate the first two years of college at UW-Madison. I provided advice, resources, and direction, and made sure they have every opportunity to be successful.

University of Wisconsin, Madison, Sociology of Gender Training Program (FemSem)

Project Assistant

August 2012 – present

Assisted professor Myra Marx Ferree with seminar arrangements including inviting and scheduling speakers, updating the website, ordering refreshments, reserving rooms, communicating with other departments, and publicizing events. Also assisted with representing the section at Visit Day for incoming graduate students.

University of Wisconsin, Madison – Center for World Affairs and the Global Economy (WAGE)

Project Assistant

August 2008 – August 2009

Assisted associate director with general office functions including university accounting paperwork (travel expense reports, direct payments, balance transfers, and purchasing cards), arranging staff travel and hotel accommodations, ordering supplies, and maintaining a training manual. Assisted with event planning and publicity, managed audio-visual technology, and represented WAGE at events. Maintained and updated website using content management software and HTML. Assisted with compiling documentation for a comprehensive 10-year review.

Nari Jibon Project, Dhaka, Bangladesh

Assistant Director

January 2005 – May 2009

Co-founder of non-governmental organization that provided women workers in urban Bangladesh with training and skill development for increased work opportunities. Trained Bangladeshi office staff, translated Bangla-English conversations, and oversaw day-to-day office procedures in the absence of the Executive Director. Participated in networking and coalition building activities with other NGOs. Assisted with staff and client counseling. Upon leaving Bangladesh in 2005, continued to provide support and guidance to overseas team via email and phone, ongoing involvement in fund development.

University of Wisconsin, Madison, McNair Scholars Program

Project Assistant

August 2006 – August 2008

Advised undergraduate McNair scholars on conducting research, writing graduate school applications, taking the GRE, obtaining funding, and choosing their school. Developed professionalization seminars and assisted with annual report compilation. Responsible for website upkeep using Dreamweaver software.

Healthy Communities Healthy Youth Marquette County

Prevention Coordinator

November 2005 – August 2006

Responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Drug Free Communities support program, with funding from SAMHSA, for Marquette County, Wisconsin. This included coordinating coalition development, the strategic prevention framework process, county-wide environmental prevention strategies, long-term systems change, information/education for coalition members, community members, and key stakeholders, as well as preparation of reporting requirements as necessary for funders.

PUBLICATIONS AND PAPERS

Book Review: Juki Girls, Good Girls: Gender and Cultural Politics in Sri Lanka's Global Garment Industry by Caitrin Lynch. (November 2008). Work and Occupations, 35(1):505:2008

"Mobility & Markets: The Rise, Rhetoric, and Reality of International University Consortia." (with Kristy Brown, Andrew Epstein, Luthen Niland, Kathryn Rudasill, and Joanne Tay.) Global Higher Education, <http://globalhighered.wordpress.com/2007/10/07/the-rise-rhetoric-and-reality-of-inter-university-consortia/> (2007)

PRESENTATIONS

"Creative Sociology: Comics as Research." Workshop at the Midwest Sociological Society Annual Conference

March 2015

"Hands Up Don't Shoot: Race and Media Frames in Ferguson" Invited lecture for Sociology 134: American Racial

and Ethnic Minorities	October 2014
“Climate Change and Women’s Empowerment in Bangladesh” Poster session at the Wisconsin Regional Gender and Women’s Studies Conference, Gendered Planet: Ethics, Ecology, and Equity.	October 2014
“Transgender and Gender Queer Systems of Identification” Invited lecture for Sociology 138: Introduction to Gender.	February 2014
“Using Set Theoretic Methods to Understand the Causal Complexity of Processes of Women’s Empowerment”	January 2014
“Violence against Sex Workers in the slums of Dhaka, Bangladesh.” Annual Conference on South Asia	October 2013
“One Big Union, One Big Strike: Student, Labor, and Education Unionism in the Struggle for Control of the Knowledge Economy.” Invited panel presentation.	August 2013
“Women’s Work and Empowerment in Dhaka, Bangladesh.” UW-Madison Sociology of Gender Research Group.	April 2013
“Deconstructing Low-Wage Women Workers in Bangladesh.” UW-Madison Sociology of Economic Change and Development Research Group	April 2011
Invited guest lecturer, Introduction to Sociology, University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh. Lecture on Sex, Gender, Sexuality and the Family.	January 2013
“Garment Work and the Patriarchal Bargain.” UW-Madison Comparative Political Economy Research Group.	October 2010
“Women Workers and the 2004 Floods in Dhaka, Bangladesh.” Rural Sociological Society Annual Meeting, Madison, WI	August 2009
“Women’s Work and Domestic Violence in Bangladesh.” UW-Madison Comparative Political Economy Research Group.	April 2008
Invited guest lecturer, Sociology of Globalization, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.	March 2008
“Women Workers and the 2004 Floods in Dhaka, Bangladesh.” American Sociological Association, Boston, Massachusetts. (with Kathryn Ward, Bill Lovekamp, and Kristi Brownfield)	August 2008
“Conducting Overseas Research.” New Fulbright Grantee Orientation, Washington DC (invited presentations.) 2008	June 2007 and 2008
“What it means to be a Fulbrighter.” New Fulbright Grantee Orientation, Washington DC. (Invited presentations.) 2006	June 2005 and 2006
“Breastfeeding in Bangladesh: A Cultural and Behavioral Assessment.” The American Center, Dhaka, Bangladesh at the Junior Fulbright Conference, May 2005. (Invited presentation.)	May 2005

TECHNOLOGY

MS Office Suite
 nVIVO Qualitative Analysis Software
 Dedoose Qualitative Analysis Software
 SPSS Statistical Analysis Software, and limited familiarity with MPlus, R, and STATA
 Command Line and BASH
 Website development and maintenance using HTML5, CSS, content management software, Dreamweaver, and Wordpress
 Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, Acrobat, and Premier (video editing and captioning)
 Audacity
 Desire2Learn and Moodle online course management systems
 Case Scenario/Critical Reader Builder

LANGUAGES

English - native
 Bengali – proficient spoken, some reading and writing ability
 Indonesian - basic

MEMBERSHIPS

American Sociological Association
 Wisconsin Sociological Association
 Sociologists for Women in Society
 Teaching Assistants’ Association

Sociologists Without Borders